Re: United States of America v. Jones
Case No. 07 C 6379

Dear Mr. Jones:

I received your letters dated July 23 and August 14, 2008, asking about the status of your case. As you know, the government has responded to your § 2255 petition, and you submitted a reply to that response, as well as an amendment to the reply. Your case is now fully briefed, and I hope to rule on it later this fall.

Yours truly,

Rebecca R. Pallmeyer

To: Honorable Rebecca R. Pallmeyer

From: Tommy E. Jones Code No. 07 C 6379

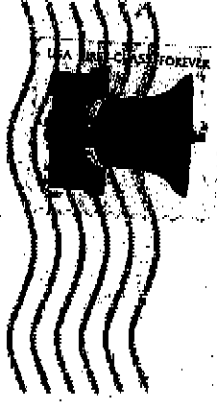

Dear your honor: I am very concerned about the outcome of my case and I wrote this court July 23rd about the mailing system and the correction for the title of my reply to the governments response. This court respectfully granted defendants reply and memorandum July 9th, since that time I have not received any documentation from this court or the clerks office concerning my case. I would usually get a response from this honorable court, but I guess your honor is very busy with other cases. I am just trying to keep track with my case, and as for my safety it's still the same even though the institution is currently locked down, but I am pushing the issue because it's cruel and unusual punishment, I spoke with one of the S.I.S officers on the 5th of August.

Respectfully
Submitted

Tommy Jones
